MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

Subject: Department of Defense Requirements for Psychological Warfare (PW) (U)

1. In a memorandum dated 15 October 1957, the Deputy Assistant to the Secretary of Defense (Special Operations), informed you that a summary for requirements for Psychological Warfare (PW) of the unified and specified commands was being determined and that the appropriate portions of those requirements pertinent to the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) would be submitted to you.
2. The Joint Chiefs of Staff have reviewed and approved the requirements contained in the Annexes listed below to be placed upon the CIA for the support of PW conducted by the commanders of unified and specified commands.
  - a. Annex "A" - Requirements of Commander in Chief, Atlantic (CINCLANT)
  - b. Annex "B" - Requirements of Commander in Chief, Continental Air Defense Command (CINCONAD)
  - c. Annex "C" - Requirements of Commander in Chief, Europe (USCINCEUR)
  - d. Annex "D" - Requirements of Commander in Chief, Pacific (CINCPAC)
  - e. Annex "E" - Requirements of Middle East Command (MECOM)
  - f. Annex "F" - Requirements of Commander in Chief, Strategic Air Command (CINCSAC)

3. The Director of Central Intelligence (DCI) is requested to advise the Joint Chiefs of Staff as to the capability of the CIA to meet each of the specific requirements contained in the attached Annexes, using the following criteria:

- a. The requirement is accepted.
- b. The requirement is accepted against future capabilities or programs under development with the date of probable readiness.
- c. The requirement is not accepted due to lack of CIA capability, present or programmed.
- d. Recommendations as to use of other government agency capabilities which might serve as an alternate to CIA.
- e. Explanatory remarks beyond the above.

4. Upon CIA's response to the requirements, the Joint Chiefs of Staff will notify the commanders of unified and specified commands of those requirements accepted by CIA. Detailed operational planning at the field level should be accomplished by the CIA representative in the field and the commander of the unified or specified command concerned.

For the Joint Chiefs of Staff:

H. L. HILLYARD,
Brig. General, USA,
Secretary.
